Judge Hoge and a party of Odd Pellows leave on Thursday night for Boston to attend the meeting of the grand lodge. The funeral of the late Mrs. T. C. Rook-ledge, which takes place from the family residence, 2% North First West street, at 4 p. m. today, will be private.

Dr. J. M. Tanner is down from Logan to attend a meeting of the state board of education which will be held this morn-ing. Dr. Tanner reports that everything points to an auspicious opening of the Agricultural college on the 20th instant.

This month's regular meeting of the state insane asylum board has been advanced from Thursday to today. This arrangement will enable Governor Wells, State Auditor Richards and State Treasurer Chipman to attend the funeral of President Woodruff.

City Engineer Kelsey and the members of the board of public works yesterday paraded the streets, like a platoon of police off duty, inspecting the street pavements to ascertain the extent of needed repairs. The board will meet on Friday to formulate a set of recommendations in the premises for presentation to the city council.

The state board of land commissioners yesterday transacted a large lot of business, but none of it was of any public importance. The board will meet again today to dispose of the balance of the accumulated routine matters. All the contest cases that were set for hearing on Thursday were postponed to a later date, on account of the funeral of President Woodruff.

City Treasurer Morris yesterday issued 12 more of the refunding bonds, making 26 out of the whole issue of 500, or 550,000 in value. Five of the old issue of bonds presented for redemption came from the National Bank of Portsmouth. N. H.; four were transferred by Wells, Fargo & Co.; two by the National Bank of the Regulbic for an eastern client, and one was sent in for collection by Estabrook & Co. of Boston.

The contract for furnishing the music for the state fair at Boise having been awarded Held's band, that organization will not enter the Eisteddfod, being forced to leave for Boise Oct. Ist. Mr. Held will take 25 me: on the tour and the band will give a series of concerts to the people of Boise on Sunday, Oct. 2. As the contract was received in competition with the Butte bund and other crack organizations Mr. Held naturally feels proud of having walked off with it.

The board of county commissioners was in session yesterday afternoon but a short time and little business was transacted. The most important part of the proceedings was the appointment of R. V. Decker as registration agent of the Thirty-seventh district to succeed Minnie H. Jumes, rangaged, and the reference to the proper committee of a numerously signed petition for the opening of a high-way running through South Jordan precinct for a distance of two and one-half miles west of the Redwood road.

Henry Ives a late arrival from Desyner.

Heary Ives, a late arrival from Denver, has taken the night clerkship of the Kenyon, succeeding Mr. R. L. McCarty. Mr. McCarty found that hotel work was uncongenial and concluded to take up peadogogical duties again by accepting the principaliship of the Sandy schools. Mr. McCarty has had long and successful experience in school teaching in California and in southern tah and his work at Sandy will surely be satisfactory to himself and those to whom he will render an account of his stewardship.

County Fruit Tree inspector Sorenson was yesterday exhibiting a lot of peaches that had been taken from an infected orchard in East Mill Creek. The peaches were utterly destroyed by a green beetle which somewhat resembles in size and form the common stinkbug. Not 5 percent of the fruit in the peach orchard escaped destruction, and the trouble would have all been obviated had the dorelict orchordist sorayed with Puris green at the proper times earlier in the season. Now, however, it will be necessary, inspector Sorenson says, to spray the peach trees with kerosene emulsion, if the green pests are to be exterminated.

Ed Lawson appeared at police station has hight with a great gush cut in his right check, which he had gotten, he said by being struck with a target rifle in the lands of Alex Weatherson, proprietor of a shooting gallery on Second South. Both men were placed under arrest by Detective Gillespie and Policeman Pack. Weatherson was charged with assault and battery and released on 25 cash ball. Lawson was booked for disturbing the peace and put up & for his appearance. Lawson claimed that the assault was uncalled for and that he had merely declared he could beat any one shooting, whereupon Weatherson struck him over the head with a rifle. Weatherson's version of the affair was not secured last night.

It was hardly expected that a meeting of the city council would be held last evening. Aside from the water question, nothing of great importance was scheduled to come up, and besides there was the far greater counter attraction of the Democratic primaries. Only Council man Alben, Diehl, Patrick, Wallace and Grossen, British and President Barnes, but if man appearance but be failed to bring two members with him to help make the meeting. As the failful five were leaving the boulding. President Barnes put if man appearance but be failed to bring two members with him to help make the meeting. So they would be on hand to perform their respective districts.

ATTENDANCE EXCEEDED

Delegates Elected In the City Seem to Be Anti-Roberts, While In the Country Districts the Reverse Appears to Be True-As to the Other

Offices It Is An Open Fight,

The most striking feature of the Democratic primaries for the election of delegates to the county convention, both in the city and county, last evenboth in the city and county, last evening, was the contrast they presented to ing, was the contrast they presented to the Republican primaries.

The latter were thinly attended, the total number out in the entire city not exceeding 250, and the meetings were absolutely devoid of enthusiasm, while the Democrats turned out in force and at a conservative estimate the city at-tendance was not less than 2,500, with such enthusiasm and lively interest everywhere as presages victory. everywhere as presages victory.

Few slates were attempted and where they were they were promptly and effectively smashed. The ladies were well represented and in all cases the proceedings were characterized by order and described.

der and decorum. So far as can be learned the delegates So far as can be learned the delegates elected in the city are generally not in favor of Mr. Roberts for congress, while in the country districts the reverse seems to be true and in one or two instances the country delegates were instructed in favor of Mr. Roberts.

As regards the other offices it is an open fight and candidates themselves admitted that it was impossible to tell what the result would be in the offices where there are a number of contestants for the nomination.

WILL NOT LIE IN STATE.

As previously announced, the remains will not lie in state at all or be viewed. The casket will be placed on the large table in front of the stands in the tabernacle. Seats will be reserved for the family, presidents of stakes and their counselors, the wives and widows of apostles and for all the organizations who have reported that they will attend in a body. These seats will be reserved in the two center rows in the main body of the tabernacle. The doors will not be thrown open to the public until the casket has been placed in position.

THE DECORATIONS. A large full length portrait of the honored president will be placed in front of the organ surrounded by decorations emblematic of the growth of the state since the arrival of the great ploneer. Near the picture will be bundles of ripened grain, and more distant, sage brush and sunflowers.

FLORAL OFFERINGS.

The committee desires it to be known that all floral offerings must be delivered at the south door not later than 8 o'clock Thursday morning. All organizations or associations who desire to attend should notify Secretary Thomas Huil. 14 Templeton building, before noon today, or they cannot be assigned places in the procession or have seats reserved them at the tabernacle.

RAILROAD RATES. The railroads have all made half fare rates for the funeral from all nearby points and a special train service will be in effect on the day of the funeral.
